SINGAPORE

An enthralling destination that encompasses a total size of 719.1 square kilometers, Singapore is the only island city-state in the world today. Singapore has a plethora of charming tourist attractions and much to entice visitors. With its most extensive collection of exotic plants and largest tropical orchid garden, Gardens by the Bay provides an unparalleled opportunity for a personalized gardening experience. Indulge in a delicious brunch at the Singapore Zoo and get up close and personal with the orangutans. Feed the giraffes or meet the first Southeast Asian polar bear. Get up close and personal with bottle-nose dolphins. The huge sea aquarium has stingrays, sharks, sea horses, etc.

Singapore has a full packed travel treasure for you to unravel!!

DAY 1: Arrival to the City - Embrace the Extravaganza Delight Of Singapore

Day 04 : Drop At The Airport & Departure with Memories

Final farewell to your ravishing voyage! Drop At Singapore Changi Airport, with your luggage intact. Ride the morning jet out of Sentosa and get back on the path of travel. With lifelong memories, your adventure continues.

Grand Copthorne Waterfront

The 30-story Grand Copthorne Waterfront Hotel is close to Boat Quay, Clarke Quay, and Robertson Quay on Singapore's waterfront, about 22 kilometres (12 miles) from Changi International Airport. The hotel positions itself as the perfect location to stay and discover Singapore, with easy access by taxi to a number of business and entertainment sectors, including Raffles Place, the Marina Bay Financial Centre, Orchard Road, Chinatown, Sentosa, and Universal Studios. It takes only two minutes to get to the new Havelock MRT station, which is situated directly across Grand Copthorne Waterfront, making it incredibly handy to travel throughout the city. The Grand Copthorne Waterfront property is conveniently close to public transport and is situated in a good area. The hotel offers tidy, spotless rooms with lovely views of the river and city. The personnel is helpful and polite. There are decent selections for Indian food in the breakfast spread.
